

NOMINATION FORM — Opal Durant Granbury Woman of the Year Award

Nominees are limited to residents of Hood County.

Nomination Form is limited to three pages using .75 inch margins & 12 pt. typeface

You may nominate a woman to receive the Opal Durant Granbury Woman of the Year Award by completing this entry form plus a 500 words (or fewer) essay about why your nominee deserves the award. You may e-mail the entry to: pwebsterco@gmail.org or mail the entry to: Woman of the Year, % Phyllis Webster, 2400 Wren Meadow Ct., Granbury, TX 76049. Deadline is September 1, 2012.

(Type or print clearly please)

Nominee:

Name:

Address:

Telephone:

E-Mail:

Person Submitting Nomination:

Name:

Address:

Phone Number where you can be reached:

E-Mail:

Please list up to 5 of the nominee's community/charitable/church affiliations:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Briefly describe the nominee's particular skills or business background relevant to this nomination:

Briefly describe how this nominee serves as a role model:

Why is this woman a leader in her profession/community/among friends and family?

Why should this nominee receive this award? (500 words or less)

Why Recognize A Woman Of The Year?

Christian Women's Job Corps and Zonta International want to honor women who emulate Christian values while achieving success . . . women who have worked hard, overcoming obstacles or hardships, to attain their goals . . . and women who are considered shining examples of community servants, leaders in their professions and/or organizations as well as role models for family and friends.

Opal Durant was such a woman. She made an indelible mark in the lives of many, in Granbury and beyond, because of her strong faith, fortitude and kind, loving spirit. She believed in helping women and children to achieve their dreams, particularly through education. Opal was a tireless community servant, a wise and talented businesswoman and the beloved matriarch of the Durant family. CWJC is pleased to honor Opal Durant by naming their Granbury Woman of the Year Award in her memory.

The award will be presented at CWJC's Rendezvous in Madrid charitable event on October 2, 2012.